Community Chest Drive Next Month

$75,000 to Be Asked for in Concerted Effort to Make Up Budgets of Local Charitable Organizations.

The Community Chest, Inc., last night perfected its organization and plans for the coming campaign which will be staged in this city early in the coming month. The date will be announced just as soon as arrangements have been made with a firm which specializes in the conduct of community campaigns but it was learned today that the drive will be put on possibly in the first week of the coming month. Col. A. B. Carrington was last night chosen president of the new organization. Frank Talbot, vice-president; H. R. Fitzgerald, second vice-president; Wayles R. Harrison, treasurer, and K. R. Murray, secretary.

The amount which is to be sought at the hands of the Danville people will be $75,000 or enough to take care of the budgets of all local charitable organizations which, in the past have been making individual appeals. The concerted effort will eliminate a good deal of the overhead expense and the time it takes to conduct such drives and, as a matter of fact the aggregate sum sought will be less than the total sum of individual drives. The concern which is being contracted will conduct a house-to-house canvass throughout the city and it will be an intensive effort in every sense. It is proposed to give everybody in Danville an opportunity to subscribe to the organizations which will be beneficiaries.

Eight organizations are "slipping" their budgets and will derive their proportionate share of the whole. These organizations are the Travelers' Aid Society, the Salvation Army, the Y. W. C. A. the Y. M. C. A., Community Welfare Association, Red Cross, Hilltop and the Danville Library.

The organization which has been hard at work for the past several weeks preparing for the campaign and discussing the community needs after exhaustive investigation is composed of the following citizens: A. B. Carrington, H. R. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Rucker Penn L. Herman, R. P. Moss, Wayles Harrison, R. R. Murray, A. M. Aiken, Dr. J. M. Shuehurin, J. M. Seeger, W. P. Boatwright, Mrs. W. T. Hughes, W. S. Morrison, Mrs. A. D. Keen, M. H. Skadden, Frank Talbot, John E. Harvie and J. E. Perkins.

Last night by laws were adopted and steps were taken to secure a charter for the Danville Community Chest. It was said this morning that no drive for funds for charitable purposes will be made for a year.

American Grapes Grown In Germany

(By the Associated Press.)

NEUSTADT, Bavaria, Oct. 18.—German grapes are now being grown on vines with American roots. In waging war on the phylloxera, a louse which feeds on the roots of grapevines, the state school for vineyard construction at Neustadt has hit upon a grafting plan which promises to save Germany's wine industry millions of marks.

It was found that the vine-louse had no appetite for the American roots. Importation of entire American vines was not feasible, because wine experts declared drinking wine from the American fruit would find no market among Germans but experiments proved that the lice-proof roots could be successfully grafted on the German vines.

This was the first appearance of the Ku Klux in Cape Charles.

The old method of pruning vines to rid them of the lice-infested parts will now be supplanted, it is expected, by a general rebuilding of vineyards, using the newly-developed German-American plants. Considerable work already has been done along this line.

Sidna Edwards Gets a Position

HOPKINSVILLE, Oct. 17.—A question that has held the interest of many people over all the State has finally been settled when it became known that Sidna Edwards, recently paroled from the State penitentiary, was to settle in Richmond and had accepted a position in that city with the Kirk Parrish Clothing Company. In an interview with Edwards, he made it plain that he was more than glad to be free and rather thankful to all the people who were the cause of him and his cousin, Fred Allen, being paroled.

Grand Secretary-Treasurer.

(By N.Y.A. Service)
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 17.—All sorts of surprises were given Detroit by the national convention of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers, just closed.

Not the least of these was the complete sweep of offices by the anti-administration forces. Edward F. Grable, who seemed certain of reelection as grand president, was defeated by F. J. Fljozdal of Dauphin, Manitoba, Canada. Elmer E. Milleman, Mt. Morris, N. Y., took office over the favored candidate for grand secretary-treasurer.

Grable's supporters felt confident that his work to keep the brotherhood out of the July strike of railway shop craft workers would insure his re-elect on.

Ernest Caldwell, a farmer living in this county, was held up at the point of a gun last night about 9 o'clock at Patton and Wall Streets by two negroes and told to hand over his money. Fortunately Caldwell did not have any money with him, which fact the negroes ascertained after a hurried search.

After leaving the farmer the two negroes went in the direction of the Southern Railway. Mr. Caldwell at once notified the police department. Sergeant Edwards, Detectives Campbell and Lewis and several other officials looked for the two negroes until an early hour this morning, but to no avail.

The place of the hold-up is not far from the center of the city.

SUIT BROUGHT AGAINST KLAN IN RICHMOND

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 17.—Suit has been begun here for an injunction to restrain the Richmond division of the Ku Klux Klan, with headquarters in Atlanta, from further using the forms, ceremonies, rituals or charter. The officers from Atlanta say that the Richmond charter was revoked October 5 and that all the books, records and papers, rituals and cash belongs to the Atlanta office. The suit was begun before Judge Weis of the South Richmond court who has thus far declined to grant the injunction but has caused the case to go until tomorrow.

Today the offices of the Klan here were entered by persons unknown and the safe blown, the records rolls, cash books and rituals all removed and no trace whatever was left as to who were the perpetrators. It is claimed that the local organization had several thousand dollars in cash on hand. Detectives are at work on the case.

"LITTLE SHEPHERD" PLEASES

Fairly Large Audience Testifies Its Approval of the John Fox Drama.

"The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," or the dramatized form of that story by John Fox, Jr. which has been widely read, proved an entertaining vehicle of amusement at the Majestic last night, being capably presented by a company of ten human and one canine character. This story of feud life in the mountain fastnesses of the Kentucky-Virginia border has sufficient gun-play in its dramatized form to give it a suggestion of the old border dramas of half a century ago, but it has also a story of simplicities even primitive love running through it. The plot is too familiar to require rehearsal. The story, however, pictures the period immediately ante-dating the Civil War and impresses the reader or beholder fail to fail with a glimpse of life in a State in which sentiment is divided between the Federal and Confederate views. The hero is a wain, who in veritable fairy-tales fashion is discovered and restored to his environment to which birth and wealth entitle him. Meanwhile, a crude, unlettered and ill-clad youth wandering about the rugged region in which the scenes of the story are laid he meets very informally a fair girl, with all the frankness and unscrupulousness to be expected of a boy birth and environment. The youthful wain has a dog, and the romance develops a case of "Love me, love my dog."

The animal characters are well cast in the play as run last night at the Majestic. Lester Howard, "Square Middleton," the mountain magnate, furnishes the comedy in the main and does it well, but in his anachronistic costume he might easily have been mistaken for a character from the "Kings" or any Eighteenth Century story. However, he manages to elicit the laughter of an audience, despite his costume and some slight defects in his dialect. Janet Cameron as "Mellsey" is an attractive bit of femininity in this truly ingenuous role and, save in costume, seems a part of the "Majesty" and its primitive life and environments. Charles Long is cast as "Big Jel Turner," "feudist" in cast in heroic mold physically and gave indication of familiarity with Renfrewshire, the setting of the drama, by his easy and natural manipulation of a jug so as to extract its fragrant contents. John Clayton as Chad seems almost too slight in physique even for his role, but with his handles his lines and his business rather creditably.

Altogether the "Little Shepherd" and his intelligent canine contribute an entertaining vehicle of diversion, though dramatized novels seldom make a profound impression.

Packers' Trade Normal Again

Head of Big Chicago Firm Says "Stable Thinking" and "Horse Sense" Did it.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 18—Good "stable thinking" and the application of "horse sense" in meeting and solving the problems encountered along the stormy road to normal operation and its attendant prosperity, has given to the American packing industry the enviable distinction of being the first great American industry to attain that object without cutting down production or causing suffering by its employees, according to Thomas E. Wilson, head of the great packing company bearing his name and president of the Institute of American Packers, which just concluded its convention here.

Addressing approximately 200 officials delegates, representing the packing industry in the United States, Wilson outlined the progress made during the last year by the industry, declaring that not only has the setback suffered during the period of inflation become a matter of history.

$50,000,000 in Interest on British Debt Is Paid

NEW YORK Oct. 18.—The British government yesterday paid the first instalment of $50,000,000 on the £27,000,000 borrowed by Great Britain this year in war loans. J. P. Morgan & Co. sent the check—a single check for $50,000,000—to the Federal Reserve Bank.

Yesterday was a busy day at the Federal Reserve Bank. The bank paid $40,000,000 in interest and about $60,000,000 in maturing Treasury certificates. It paid $40,000,000 interest on Liberty bonds and $1,000,000 from the members' bonds. It withdrew an additional $3,000,000 from the members' bonds.

The call money lenders, as was to have been expected, made themselves anxious to get a share in the demand funds. The market was but up in price, but just as usual, there was plenty of money to be obtained. No matter how high the rate is put, there always an abundance of funds available to those willing to pay the price.

While the call money pool was forming, the Wall Street borrowers who had made S. S. S. today the great blood cleanser, body-builder, success builder, and it's why results have made tears of joy flow from the souls of thousands. Mr. V. D. Schiff, 507 13th St., Washington, D. C., writes:

"I tried for years to get relief from a bad case of boils. Everything failed until I took S. S. S. I am now absolutely cured, and it was S. S. S. that did it."

Try it yourself. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

S.S.S. makes you feel like you again

Meat Prices Normal

Wholesale prices of meats, Wilson asserted, have now virtually returned to the levels of 1918, the differences—plus or minus—varying only to the extent of a few cents at the most, and in many cases only fractions of a cent. Meat values are now virtually stable, he said, the seasonal fluctuations—always more or less bazaar—can now be treated as such and met without the almost disastrous losses which have accompanied such fluctuations in the last few years.

Wilson presented Federal statistics showing that the differences in prices of packer products at the present time are practically those of peace days. On all pork products, the figures showed, the greatest difference was ten cents a pound in ham and skinned shoulders differed by three cents and one cent respectively, leaf lard and spare ribs were but one-half cent different from those of 1918.

With beef, veal and hides, likewise, Wilson pointed out, the 1922 prices are virtually the prices of 1918. The readjustment process was a natural one and not an artificial one brought about by the curtailing of production to prevent possible financial loss to the packers, Wilson asserted. The number of animals slaughtered during the first seven months of 1921 and 1922 showed that the packers were buying all animals sent to the yards, he declared.

Export Adjusted

The readjustment in the export trade likewise has foisted itself out in a satisfactory manner, according to the packers' president. While the values of exported packer products has shown a decrease of approximately 70 per cent, the shrinkage in quantity has only totaled 40 per cent, showing that as with the domestic trade products curtailment has not been an element in readjustment.

In dealing with the problem of labor the methods practiced by the American packers have been productive of most gratifying results, the packer chief said. The evolving of a solution of the question of wages on the theory that fairness before fairness has resulted in the bringing together of the worker and the employer in this industry. Wilson asserted, "With the results desired, the workers he said have been brought to understand that 'employer' does not have some such and the stock of money out of which to pay wages that cannot be set up in buildings, machinery and equipment and that higher wages never come out of a scaled production."

The packing industry never exercised arbitrarily or unreasonably the power which has been theirs to hammer wages down to the lowest limits, Wilson declared. In spite of the fact that the business has been far from profitable and that the supply of labor would have permitted payment of almost any wage we find that wages in the packing industry have remained at least 15 per cent above the average through the United States.

Probable for First Time in All the History of the Courts, Joe Doe Today Was Convicted Herd and Was Sent to Prison

WINSTON-SALEM N. C., Oct. 17—Probably for the first time in all the history of the courts, Joe Doe today was convicted herd and was sent to prison. In this case John Doe was a negro, deaf and dumb, unable to tell or write his name, and so the court entry was John Doe alias Chang of Winston-Salem or Pocahontas, Ill., warned to go to his address before the annual convention here of the National Association of Farm Equipment Manufacturers.

The ancient Egyptians had established agriculture on a profitable basis and reduced it to a science almost 3,000 years ago, he said, and then allowed their work to lapse because it was made unprofitable.

They learned the different characteristics of the soil that could best be used to raise the various kinds of crops.

Mr. Bartholomew said: "They employed a system of crop rotation to maintain the fertility of the soil and it is said they used agricultural implements and made improvements from time to time."

They established a system of drainage and irrigation. They prospered until the so-called Babylonian period when those who were considered superiors or lords of the land had king iron chariots and a large army.

The call money lenders, as was to have been expected, made themselves anxious to get a share in the demand funds.

John Doe Gets Term In Prison

WINSTON-SALEM N. C., Oct. 17—Probably for the first time in all the history of the courts, Joe Doe today was convicted herd and was sent to prison. In this case John Doe was a negro, deaf and dumb, unable to tell or write his name, and so the court entry was John Doe alias Chang of Winston-Salem or Pocahontas, Ill., warned to go to his address before the annual convention here of the National Association of Farm Equipment Manufacturers.

The ancient Egyptians had established agriculture on a profitable basis and reduced it to a science almost 3,000 years ago, he said, and then allowed their work to lapse because it was made unprofitable.

They learned the different characteristics of the soil that could best be used to raise the various kinds of crops.

Mr. Bartholomew said: "They employed a system of crop rotation to maintain the fertility of the soil and it is said they used agricultural implements and made improvements from time to time."

Party Attempts To Re-Unite Ranks

TOKIO, Oct. 18.—The Seikka party which has a majority in the Diet and upon which the Kondo party looks to support its efforts to effect a close of ranks split with Vice-Count Takahashi was compelled to hand over his leadership to Baron. The friends of Tokio Nagashige and Hisao Noguchi, former supporters of the Kondo party, were eager to seize the opportunity to regain their party status when the Diet adjourned yesterday, but they were unable to do so because of the statements of certain other members of the Diet.

CHICAGO ALDERMAN IN WAR ON UNDERTAKERS CALLS 'EM PROFITEERS

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—There's little use in dying in Chicago to escape old H. C. T., according to Alderman John Czakala. The worst profiteer in Chicago is the casket maker, Czakala said in demanding that the City Council probe the high cost of dying.

Poor persons are called upon to pay from $300 to $500 for an ordinary wooden box, with a few plush trimmings, and an nickel-plated handles. "A casket costs about two hours costs $15." I am informed the very cheapest kind of casket costs $150."

Alderman Leo Brieske, an undertaker, offered to divulge interesting secrets of the trade after the City Council voted an inquiry.

SCHOOL TEACHER'S FRIENDS MADE GLAD.

One of them has this to say yesterday. We never thought that poor Elton would ever recover, she had suffered so long from stomach and liver trouble and had lost more 40 pounds in weight. She took a bottle of Mr. "Wonderful Remedy" under the advice of Dr. [unclear] and this steadily improved from the first dose. We are all converts to the complete "cure." It takes one-half the amount from the intestinal tract and all as the inflammatory which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. It rids you of headache. One dose will cure you of a cold. J. C. McFarlin's Drug Store, Trenton Co. and druggists everywhere can tell you.

Dissolved Sulfur Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Patient Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this country is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pine bottle of Allenruh, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop agonies, reduce swelling, and to do away with even the slightest twinges of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenruh has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiful and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N.Y., the discoverer of Allenruh who for many years suffered from acute rheumatism, died recently at the age of 80, and it is known that he did not want a cent or any other money unless Allenruh decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance. UNCOMFORTABLE AFTER MEALS?

Then Try a Pinch of Black Draught. This White-Haired Alabama Lady Says It Helps Her.

Dutton, Ala.——recommending Theford's Black-Draught to her friends and neighbors here, Mrs. T. F. Parks, a well-known Jackson County lady, said:

"I am getting up in years, my head is pretty white. I have seen medicine and remedies come and go, but the old reliable came and stayed. I am talking of Black-Draught, a liver medicine we have used for years—one that can be depended upon and one that will do the work."

"Black-Draught will relieve indigestion and constipation if taken right, and I know, for I tried it. It is the best thing I have ever found for the full uncomfortable feeling after meals."

"Sour stomach and sick headache can be relieved by taking Black-Draught. It aids indigestion, also assists the liver in throwing off impurities. I am glad to recommend Black-Draught, and, to my friends, and neighbors."

The simple common ailments due to disordered stomach, liver and bowels, you will find Theford's Black-Draught a useful and valuable remedy. The purely vegetable ingredients of which Black-Draught is composed gently stimulate the liver, increasing the flow of digestive juices, thereby helping to prevent or relieve constipation in an easy, natural way.

"Endowed" Into Politics, Davison Races Conductor

BY DUDLEY SIDDALL.

DAYTON, Ohio, Oct. 17.—Although Trubee Davison is aiming to be an endowed politician, the fact is that he comes from the rugged, self-made class. Davison is the eldest son of the late Henry P. Davison, who was a member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. and headed American war relief as chairman of the War Council of the Red Cross.

Vote getting is a nerve-breaking fine job, said Davison in the course of an afternoon's hand-breaking session over in Dayton. "It's all mount-tow-the-mountain," he said, "because it offers an interesting career and a chance to be useful."

There is no cure for a bad case of politics, but Robert J. Lind in his opinion, in his efforts to be re-elected to the New York State assembly on the Republican ticket. His advertising is no more costly nor are his campaign signs more plentiful than those of other candidates.

He has come to footer, however, Davison is lavish. The chief fact is that he is crippled life—the result of an airplane crash which broke his back when he was a major during the war. Though his legs and feet are僵ized, he gets about at a normal rate of speed without even a cane.

More interesting than his legs, however, is his head and what ambitions it has. A large, well-made, rounded head, and it shows no signs of getting old. He is a very intelligent face, habitually wears a serious expression. He seems older than his 26 years.

Born in my school days, said Davison. I got the idea that I should like to go into politics. My father was the kind of rubes who's is seldom used in Nasau court.

He was educated at Yale College, law school and by travel along lines best adapted to the needs of a man who expects to go in for a political career.

Harry, after being graduate from Yale, has entered J. P. Morgan & Co.

So here is an unusual type of American politician, a young man whose political needs are supplied, who was given the best possible education with the idea that he would become a public servant, who is admirably equipped with qualifications for vote getting and who loves politics for its own sake.

"What is the chink in your platform?" he asked a question.

Football coaching seems to run in the Romnes. Formerly a University of Chicago star, coaching the rock for the University of Texas, Tex. Montana A. and M. College team is in charge of Oz Romne. Patting Siki, who recently won fame over night by his defeat of George Carpentier, is already showing the true instincts of a fighter. It is hinted that the new pugilist will sign up again with his old manager, and his contract runs out in a very short time. Likewise he has decided to break some of the contracts already made with American promoters. Success is a terrible thing for some people.

SHIFT TWICE. THEY CHANGE NEW FORMULA OF PLAY

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—Shift twice and then change is the formula of play devised by head coach Jimmie Heisman, of the University of Pennsylvania football team. It was learned yesterday that the team was to play the game in this manner.

The play is executed by the backfield sometimes to the right, sometimes to the left, and some time straight up in the air without moving from position at all.

The shift is designed to confuse the enemy and the effort desired is to present physiological. It was given a brief trial in the Maryland game Saturday, and Coach Heisman was pleased with its success.

SISTER SAYS YANKEES LAYER BELOW FORM.

George Sister selected as the most valuable player in baseball picked the New York Yankees to beat the Giants.

Like practically every other expert in the country, George was made to look very bad by the Yankees losing four straight.

However George need not worry over the failure of the Yankees to come through. Just prior to the series 12 players on the Brooklyn team in the National League were used for an opinion. Nine of the 12 said the Yankees would win easily.

I predicted that either the New York Yankees or the St. Louis Browns would beat the Giants in a short series. Despite the downfall of the Yankees I stand on the statement that the Browns could have turned the trick, says Sister.

The Yankees have great strength but nothing makes up for it. Slow thinking has kept them from being a remarkable club. The Yankees during the season are either very good or very bad. In the series they were very bad.

The overwhelming defeat of the Yankees casts a reflection on the American League that is decidedly undeserved.

Despite the fact that the Yankees failed to win a game no contest was decided by a greater margin than in the runs in the very game that Scott's shutout and the tie the Yankees were out in front. In two of the games falling in the eighth inning by the Giants decided the issue.

Davison is married and the exceedingly proud father of N. Trubee, 14 months old. He has a beautiful though modest enough home on the estate of his father near Lodi, New Jersey, a few miles from here.

So that's young Trubee Davison introduced to the candidate. He's just plain folks, ain't he? The old man paused and looked up the street where Davison was greeting a gang of boys.

They say his paw left him six billion dollars. Well, it ought to be six billion 'cause you can't begrudge a nice young feller like him nothing. I don't think that so? He's gom to get my vote, even if I am mostly a Democrat.

The plans worked out Trubee (the name is seldom used in Nasau court) was educated at Yale College, law school and by travel along lines best adapted to the needs of a man who expects to go in for a political career.

AMERICAN WOMEN ARE CARELESS

Women are too apt to overestimate their strength and overwork it. When doing well they take unnecessary chance, which in the long run cause much pain and trouble. Wet feet, exposure to cold, lifting heavy burdens and overwork will often develop troubles which cause an end of suffering. Lydia E. THE NEW BRUNSWICK AFFAIR.

If the Landry murder case had been bungled in France to the extent that has the New Brunswick affair in which a minister of the gospel and his choir leader were brutally slain under circumstances which permit only one construction and that is clandestine love. For several weeks the headlines have proclaimed the almost daily "im-pending" arrest, the gathering up of new "important" clues and the "dawning of new lights" destined to clear up the identity of the slayers as well as the motives. A couple of arrests made proved to be based on entirely false premises and were the result of police officiousness. A confession made by a youth was later repudiated. At the present time the investigation of the slaying is in a chaotic state with local authorities at odds with those of the State which have been brought to bear and with the representatives of firms of detectives at cross purposes with both State and local officials. Under such conditions it is not hard to understand why no material headway has been made and unless a sort of internal housecleaning and the harmonizing of co-operative efforts is arrived at the murder will go down as one of those unsolved affairs.

Investigators after beating about the bush for weeks have concentrated their efforts on the immediate families of the minister and the choir singer, and suspicions are being reinforced by the discovery of new ardent love episodes written by the choir singer to the minister with whom she was slain. Considering the locale of the gruesome happening—a comparatively small town—and the fact that the shots and screams were heard, the murder does not present the problem it would in a densely populated city where crime is highly organized. The fact that the "affaire" of Mrs. Mills and the minister was a public scandal long before their killing points inevitably to those persons whose mental attitude over the development, might be expected to be most disturbed.

Scoop's Column

PLEASANT GAP, Oct. 18.—(Grapevine Wires)—You never can tell what an alert advertiser will be able to turn into profit. Today's black eye may be tomorrow's rosy check. Once upon a time there was a Jewish merchant who turned his wife, divorce suit in account. She sued him for divorce, claiming $10,000 damages.

And the next day he advertised a special sale, giving as the reason:

"I need $100 to pay my wife what she has sued me for. Of course, I will sacrifice profit for cash and sell very reasonable."

There are a lot of things less intimate than this which could with good grace be turned to advertising account. If we all kept our eyes on the Main Chance.

The trouble with the country is too many divorces and not enough marriages.

Baseball is acclaimed the American national game. Excellent proof of this claim is furnished by hosts of fans who congregate daily at the ball park during the baseball season. There seems to be a popular fascination in watching ball players in action. Among the fans, we find some women, although men are in the majority. When girls and boys accompany their men friends to the game they ask many foolish questions about the plays on the diamond. Once upon a time a girl gave evidence of understanding the game when "with sudden frenzied motion of her hands she caught her breath" just as rooting for the home team is a national outdoor pastime, banting at the jokes in "Topics of the Day." Calendar Evolution Age Long Romance

WASHINGTON. Oct. 18.—The evolution of the calendar, from the days when men could count only from day to day, through the time when the luar month was reckoned as a "year," to the present time of an almost universally used time counting system, is a romance of the history of man. Piecing together the few known facts of the calendar's life story, scientists have found different interpretations and uses for well known facts and remains of early life.

For instance according to Moses B. Cotsworth, writing in a recent publication of the Pan-American Union, the well known Egyptian pyramids were not erected by early monarchs of that realm as monuments to their greatness nor as tombs for their bodies; but were huge sun dials with the aid of which the yearly precession of the equinoxes was discovered and the calendar devised.

The pyramids were constructed by mathematicians and geometers, Mr. Cotsworth holds. The size, height and slopes of each being determined to aid astronomy. Each of the piles in lower Egypt was built at a different period, until the last was found to be the more nearly perfect for studying the sun and stars on the meridian of Egypt. Not until each was abandoned for a better, he claims, was a pyramid given over to the uses of a local town.

The pyramidal form in conjunction with the obelisk was devised to cast a shadow of sufficient sharpness to be measured and analysed day by day. The wonderful Washington Monument at Washington D. C., which shadow measurements found to be constructed perfectly from base to peak, while following the form of the Egyptian obelisk, is too high, he found to cast a shadow useful for solar measurements. The blending of the sun's rays around the top, at that distance blurs the shadow. However, he declared, the shadow was used for certain measurements which prove that September 23 and not the 21st is the day of the fall equinox.

The pyramid was the result of the Egyptians' efforts to get a sufficiently long shadow to measure the months and years more accurately, and along its sides the early astronomer gazed to mark the movements of the stars and planets.

Stonehenge, an ancient monolithic ruin in England, attributed to the Druids, was another mechanical means of determining solar and lunar movements. It was said, as was the purpose also of several other similar ancient stone constructions in various parts of the world.

The primary reason for the calendar in early days was the need of knowing when to sow and reap, how to handle cattle and to determine other propitious days. All peoples, it is supposed, used the periods of the moon as their longest time space, but this was varied and unequal through the years. Noah, it was said, adopted the early Egyptian calendar of a five month year, 30 days to the month and three ten-day weeks, as a better way to ration the tribal supplies.

Bundles of small sticks were the first known means of actually keeping track of the passage of days, and even today some American Indians keep five bundles of 30 sticks pulling out one stick each day. The last bundle is repeated in each half year or even things up, and the middle bundle's split in two equal groups to determine the approach of midsummer and midwinter days. In the Fiji Islands the "moor stick" was used, on which a notch marked the waning of each moon.

The Hebrews evolved a six month year when Jacob set out stakes from a central position in a line to the horizon to mark where the sun rose and set on the longest, shortest and median day of the year. The extreme ages given to early Bible worthies were attributed to counting "moons" as years and later 5 and 6 months as full years.

One of the means used by the early priesthoods, to impress the masses, it was explained, was the secrecy attending the determining of the seasons and years. Sacred rods used to measure the shadows by which the time of year was determined, were jealously guarded, and when, on the

Many Come To Aid Of Mrs. Bouchel

By NEA Service.

NEW ORLEANS La., Oct. 18.—Last week, Atlanta Ga., held the umelight in the jilting of Mrs. Onezima De Bouchel, beautiful New Orleans society woman. Now it's New Orleans' turn.

Said to represent the Candler interests private detectives and other agents are reported to have been working here, seeking to gather evidence against Mrs. De Bouchel. By this, it is charged, the Candler hope to bolster the charges of a pimping party made by Asa G. Candler, millionaire coca-cola king, when he broke his engagement.

Even the offices of Mrs. De Bouchel's attorneys have been visited by these agents, it is alleged. Harold Mouse, one of the woman's lawyers, alleges he caught a man leaving the Mouse office with the last letters Candler wrote his ex-fiancée. A struggle ensued before Mouse regained the charges he says.

Meantime, New Orleans is militantly aligned with Mrs. De Bouchel in regard to the charges made against her. Her return from Atlanta was the occasion for hundreds of social prominent people leaders in women's clubs, etc. to meet her at the station and pledge their confidence in her integrity and their aid in refuting the charges.

Mrs. De Bouchel is in seclusion here. Meantime from all over the south her friends are rallying to her support.

Mrs. Memphis comes new assistance in Mrs. De Bouchel's fight to vindicate her honor. The Tracey family formerly lived in Covington, Ky. Tracey's mother and Mrs. Margaret Tracey now are living in Cincinnati, O.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—In the contest of two women, each claiming to be the widow of Richard William Tracey, hotel and saloon keeper, who left $69,000 in securities and whisky valued at $50,000, a brother of Tracey, James G. Tracey of Chicago, testified in probate court today that his brother deserted Mrs. Margaret Cassidy Tracey 28 years ago and never divorced her. The Tracey family formerly lived in Covington, Ky. Good Morning Judge!

Virginia Banks, a negro, whose house in Opera House Alley was raided yesterday and nearly two gallons of corn whisky found, was this morning fined $51 and sentenced to serve thirty days in jail. Three quarts of the liquor were found in Virginia's room and a gallon in an upstairs room occupied by another negro, but the former admitted to the police that she put it there, although denying this in court this morning. An appeal was noted.

Herbert Corbett colored was also fined $51 and given thirty days in jail for violating the Mapp act. Corbett was surprised this morning with two hot water bags of corn whisky in the bottom of his shirt. Police Officer

Flood Towell had information that the negro was coming through Moseley's bottom with some whisky and he and Patrolman F. M. Hoffinger hurried to the scene, arrested the negro. Corbett threw one of the bags to the ground but the officer took the other from his shirt bosom. Each of them held one gallon.

A fine of $51 was imposed on Frank Cousins on a charge of operating an automobile while intoxicated. He was also fined $11 for creating a disturbance.

O. M. Gafford fined $10 and costs for an alleged violation of the Mapp act.

J. F. Davis charged with violating the Mapp act, granted a continuance. But Walker, colored, fined $25 for driving an automobile fast and recklessly. Several witnesses testified that Walker came down Washington Street at a rapid rate of speed and also was driving recklessly.

Broadway Angel Is Freed of Charge

Salvation Lassie Arrested in Gotham's Theatrical District Wins Her Case in Court.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Captain Rieba Crawford of the Salvation Army, twenty-four and pretty, was promptly discharged yesterday by Magistrate Oberwager when she was arraigned in West Side Court on a disorderly conduct charge. The arraignment followed her arrest Sunday evening while speaking from the steps of the Gaetje Theatre on 46th street, west of Broadway.

"The Angel of Broadway," as she is called, wrote a letter to the police Commissioner Enright asking for an interview with him at 1 P. M. this morning. She informed him that her arrest was a special move to stop the Sunday night meetings she has conducted for two years, but thinks it may be due to a misunderstanding. This belief is based on an order she said she saw in the West 47th Street Station, where she was taken immediately after her arrest. This order, sent out at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon by Inspector Bolan, specifically directed, she says, that her meeting should be stopped, mentioning the patrolman who arrested Capt. Crawford had stated the Inspector's orders were that all meetings in this district, from Fifth to Eighth Avenue be stopped. However, Capt. Crawford's arrest did not stop the meeting, for her assistants, Capt. Jones and Lieut. Hicks, continued it.

"Why," asked Capt. Crawford of a reporter for the World, "should my meetings be stopped after I have conducted them two years? I was booked on a charge of blocking traffic, but this was afterward changed to one of disorderly conduct. If I have been blocking traffic it has taken the police a long time to find it out, and also if I was disorderly.

"I am not antagonistic to the police, but have always regarded them as friends. The theatrical people in this district are all my friends, and I have the permission of the Gaetje Theatre people to speak from their steps as well as having a general police permit and one for this restricted district.

When dance halls are open on Sunday evening, when the bus spiedex are luring people to Chinatown, when 'speakeasies' are operating everywhere, why should the police want to stop the only place for godless between Times Square and Columbus Circle?

"Most certainly I am going to continue them. Magistrate Oberwager told me that unless I received notification of the cancellation of my permit I could hold a meeting Sunday night, and I intend to do so. If that is stopped, I shall continue the fight to give Broadway only Sunday night meetings for religion."

Three men who were arrested Sunday evening from among the immense crowd which followed Capt. Crawford to the station hissing and hooting the policeman who arrested her and the two who came to his assistance also were discharged yesterday.

His chest was crushed, and his lungs injured, according to physicians.

Mr. Eaton, with two friends was returning from the Spartanburg Gun Club trap shooting contest, when the horse became frightened and the accident followed. It was said,

COMMUNISTS ARE ARRESTED
BERLIN, Oct. 17.—Police continued to arrest Communists in large numbers today in connection with the disturbances of Sunday, when two were killed and 28 wounded during an attempt to suppress a pan-German meeting. The police raided the offices of the Communist organ, Rote Fahne (Red Flag). They were looking, it was said, for some clues to the possible connection between the local Communists and Moscow.
